SERIOUS FIRE OCCURS IN CENTER OF TOWN

Establishment of Robert Vetter on Fallowfield
Avenue Damaged

MYSTERY AS TO ORIGIN

Believed That Chicken
Thieves Were Responsible For Morning Conflagration

Fire which threatened the center of town wrought heavy damage at the cleaning and drying establishment of Robert Vetter, of 415 Fallowfield avenue at an early hour this morning. While the origin of the fire is not known it is believed to have come from the activities of chicken thieves. The loss, well covered by insurance will run into the thousands, and will hardly be under $2,000.

Mr. Vetter discovered the fire himself when he was awakened at about 12:15 in his room on the second floor by a crackling noise at the rear of his building. Glancing out he beheld a roaring fire that was hottest about a chicken coop. Flames had spread until the kitchen part of the building was burning. This part of the building is at the rear of the brick establishment. The chicken coop was located back farther and close to a wash room.

Mr. Vetter summoned the members of his family and William Vetter, son turned in the fire alarm, and long-handled pulled out a hose cart and hurried it to Fourth street where a fire plug is located. Policemen Gus Erickson and Burgess Woodward arrived, and the hose was strung to the burning building. Firemen were next on the scene and within about five minutes after the discovery of the fire, a stream of water was playing on it, and the conflagration was under control. Chemicals were used in the interior of the building to subdue the fire.

The cleaning room is a tile building two stories high set on the rear end of the lot, with the second floor as the wash room. Some damage was wrought there. Fire proof arrangement of the gasoline which Mr. Vetter keeps stored away proved its salvation. The gasoline is buried under ground and pipes leading from it have an arrangement for automatic drainage. No gasoline was burned, and had no chance to explode.

The pressing room which is located in the back of the store and display room was damaged, and about six suits of clothes in all were burned. Included in the general loss will be about two dozen chickens and the same number of pigeons. A half dozen chickens managed to get out and were driven into a nearby barn.

What gives credence to the theory that the fire originated from chicken thieves is the evident fact that the fire started in the chicken coop. Everything points to this belief. There is where the flames raged the hottest. Dry straw was provided for a floor in the chicken coop and the sides were lined with tar board.

To Remember Fanny Crosby

Observance of Her Ninety-Fourth Birthday to Take Place Sunday

Honor will be paid to Fanny Crosby the famous hymn writer of the choir, Rev. J. T. Hackett and the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening. The evening will be an evening of story and song in commemoration of her ninety-fourth birthday. Rev. Hackett will do the reading, telling something of the life story of the famous blind woman, and the choir under the direction of W. C. Clark will intersperse with songs. The musical part will consist of songs of which Fannie Crosby was the author. During her lifetime Fannie Crosby has written 7,000 songs, among the most famous of which are "Pass Me Not," "Saved By Grace," and "Blessed Assurance." She has been blind since she was six months old.

COAL GOES DOWN WITH BIG BARGE

Part of Tow Strikes Pier of Belle Vernon Bridge
and Loss Results

MAY DIG OUT COAL

When a coal boat loaded with approximately 25,000 bushels of coal struck a pier of the Speers-Belle Vernon bridge at about 8:30 o'clock Friday night, it sank carrying down with it all the coal, and representing what will probably be complete loss. The loss to the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, shippers of the coal and owners of the coal boat, will be in round numbers $15,000.

The towboat Rover was in charge of the tow. Besides the one large barge, it had two other barges that were well loaded, but they were easily saved from going down.

Some effort may be made to dig out the coal, but it is stated that the most of it and the boat, worth alone close to $2,000, will be lost.

DISORDERLIES READY FOR MONESSEN PAY

Pittsburgers Migrate to Steel Town in Anticipation of Good Business Day--Disbursements Heavy

Prompt to take advantage of an opportunity for gambling is a little of the extra coin of the realm, and it is said the Pittsburgh Steel company will disassociate with business in Pittsburg during the last few days, a number of disorderly characters migrated to Monessen today to be on hand. That the big pay will mean disorderly for work at the time of one of the largest pay days that Monessen has had for months. In the party from Pittsburgh it is said are many women of loose habits, as well as other representatives of the underworld. Today approximately $200,000 will be disbursed from two mills alone, if the reports are correct. SITUATION IN STRIKE IMPROVED

The movement of freight along the Monongahela division, P. R. R. was brisker today than it had been at any time since the strike of trainmen was declared last Saturday. Coke and coal trains are running, and local freights are in operation. The main trouble that is noticeable in the operation of trains is the inexperience of many of the men, and their lack of knowledge of the tracks. This delays traffic somewhat.

The only semblance of disorder along the Monongahela division has come through the arrest of some of the conductors of freight trains for blocking crossings. These arrests have occurred at various points, including Monongahela, West Elizabeth and Uniontown. Sometimes it happens that strike sympathizers are blamed for sliding the air hose, necessitating a tie up just when a crossing is reached.

From the railroad point of view the strike situation is less grave than it has been at any time. Strikers are determined and have little to say. They propose the organization of a new "Industrial Railway Union." A spirit of unrest is being manifested in many quarters partly because of the retrenchment policy of the railroad.

Locally little effect of the strike is being felt. For the last two days, some of the grocery stores have felt anxiety concerning shipments of freight. Today's arrival of freight showed betterment.

CHARLEROI CLASSES INVITED TO ATTEND

Charleroi Adult Bible classes have been extended an invitation to attend the Organized Adult Bible Class day exercises at the First Presbyterian church, Monongahela, on Monday. Charleroi people who are to take part in the program, are W. S. James, county organized Bible class superintendent, Rev. J. R. Furson, Miss Norma Bosson and Miss Ethel Hawthorne. The first named two will speak, Miss Bosson will render two violin solos, and Miss Hawthorne will sing.

"Hesing" the Streets.
Street Commissioner Jacob Hornell is taking advantage of the break in the cold weather to wash down the streets. He has had his hose force out today, and his efforts have made a decided improvement in the appearance of the streets.

CELEBRATION IS ENJOYED BY FIREMEN

The members of the North Charleroi Fire Department held their second annual smoker in their hall Friday night. It was largely attended and with much music and good fellowship reigned supreme. The affair was one of the most successful and enjoyable social events of the kind ever held in North Charleroi. Fifty plates were laid for the supper.

Burgess S. L. Woodward of Charleroi, one of North Charleroi's old time "boosters," was the honor guest of the evening. Harry W. Scott, Esq., was toastmaster, and had something appropriate to say as he called on the various speakers of the evening. "Sammy" Gaskill gave an interesting talk on his first trip to Pittsburg. "It was a dream," he said. J. O. Watson, talked entertainingly on his "Start in Life" and Tom P. Sloan spoke emphatically on the "Welfare of the People."

Others, including Burgess Pierce, Frank and members of the council and school board, made interesting talks. The matter of supplying better and more equipment for the North Charleroi Fire Department was also taken up and discussed.

A most delectable menu which included ice cream, cake and cigars, was served by a committee composed of A. A. Caesbeer, J. Alfrie and E. Paxton, members of the fire department. Music was furnished by E. H. Jacobs and E. Kohle.

CHARLEROI YOUNG WOMEN SING AT PITTSBURG

When the young people's branch of the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church met in Pittsburg in convention Thursday evening, a quartet of Charleroi young women connected with the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church sang. The quartet was composed of Misses Manie Rockwell, Emma Clutter, Elma Collins and Ethel Kendrick. An address was made there by Dr. W. C. Johnson, of Africa.

Part of Affair

Pupils of the Second street school presented an interesting and pleasing program at the high school auditorium Friday evening as the third series. The program, which was under the direction of Prof. L. T. Dole, Prof. T. L. Pollock, and teacher of the Second street building was well rendered and showed careful training. The program was as follows:

"Boogie Boo," by the prima grades; violin solo, "A Perfect Day," by Michener; "Red Riding Hood," drama; "In Funland," a musical comedy; and "The Holy City," a pantomime.

The playlet "Red Riding Hood" was presented in three scenes. The story of the start of Red Riding Hood to her sick grandmother with a basket of dainties, the meeting with a fairy encounter with a wolf in the wood and the saving of Red Riding Hood from the wolf in the home of the grandmother were splendidly portrayed. The part of Red Riding Hood was joyfully taken by Marie, and the part of Red Riding Hood's mother was taken by Thelma Hughes. A wood cutter, by William Goller, the wolf by Harold Beazell, grandmother by Anna Welsh and Queen of fairies by Fannie Parks. In connection with the playlet several pleasing numbers were rendered by a chorus of fairies and a hunters' chorus.

"In Funland," a musical comedy was opened with a song, "We Spin the Kite," by the chorus, "Keep Your Eyes on Daddy," Daddy Wisacre, by Charlie, Fred and the chorus. "I Always Try to Do the Best I Can," solo by Beatrice B. Attitude, "Pardon Me," Henri D. Barri and Victor De Polignac. "Unhappy Rusty Rover," by Rusty Rover and chorus and the grand finale by all. In the cast of characters the part of Rusty Rover's tramp was taken by Carl Guller, Henri D. Barri the pink of politeness by Frank Riva, Victor De Polignac the essence of etiquette, by Earl May, Tommy Touch a villain by Wilbert Collins, Willie Schoolcraft by Stanley Laird "Daddy Wisacre," a wise old gentleman by Herbert Provins, Charlie and Fred, two frisky boys by Lester Beazell and Hardie Albright, Nick Nightstick by Irvin Morgan, Miss Beatrice B. Attitude, an unappreciated "Good Samaritan," by Audrey Michener, four boys by Jack Mathias.

EARLY RISING

Now is the time when every nature lover assures us it is doubly worth while to get up at sunrise, says the Canonsburg Press. "During the winter months it is always a temptation to lie in bed late and dream beneath warm comfortables-when you have any.
Where one's work compels a prompter get-up the average man cannot help feeling it to be a bother rather than a blessing; and one is daily reminded of the chap who, suddenly willed a million, spent his first days of idleness throwing pillows at the alarm clock.

"Not so, however, as Old Sol crawls close to the vernal equinox.
The glory of a March sunrise, the glint upon the morning frost and the faint but slowly growing suggestion of coming sap and buds and flowers and renewed twitter of birds are real pleasures which invite the soul.
Besides, there is a stimulus about this getting up with the sun which no other hour of rising quite approaches. It recalls the vim with which, as a boy, you used to jump up to do the chores, bathe your face in cold water, down your quota of steaming bacon and eggs and go to the tasks of the day with pulses leaping and joy singing anthem in your heart.

"Do you doubt what we say? Then put it the test. Get up, tomorrow, with the sun, the chickens and the four-legged beasts. Walk to work in the exhilarating fresh air and sunshine. And if it doesn't put a new zest into the day, the doctors, the poets and the philosophers-to say nothing of all old-timers-must be set down as no longer worthy of credence."

A MUCH VEXED QUESTION

The action of District Attorney Miller in proceeding against certain social and fraternal clubs and organizations on the charge of dispensing liquor illegally is expected to settle the question so far as this county is concerned, at least, as to what constitutes violations of the law in this respect. In spite of various court rulings and decisions on similar cases elsewhere in the state a wide diversity of opinion exists as to what exactly, and under what circumstances, organizations can dispense liquor to their own members, without violating the liquor laws.

While there have been supreme court decisions to the effect that a regularly chartered club organized under certain conditions to its own members without violating the liquor laws of the state, there seems to be an impression that this privilege is open at any and all times to any organization that may secure a charter, or even proceed without the latter sanction. As a result the sideboard club flourish everywhere-in wet territory as well as dry-and the number of these clubs and the aggregate of their liquor sales brings the regular consumption up to an equality with that of the regularly licensed bars. It is charged that the most of these clubs that maintain sideboards are unlawful, and it is to determine the line of demarcation, apparently, that the district attorney has taken action.

As a result of this action on the part of District Attorney Miller the exact legal status of the sideboard clubs will be no doubt be determined.
That will settle the question definitely as to what clubs may and may not do in the matter of dispensing liquor, and reduce the problem to a legal bar-is and keep it there.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The American Magazine has been offering prizes for the best letters entitled "What I Would Do with a Million Dollars." The prize-winning letters are published in the April number and following is one of them:
"Most people know just what they would do with a million dollars. And I am no exception. So if you really want to know what I would do with so much money, I can tell you just as easy!

"I'd do as I pleased!
"I am just a little woman of forty who has spent all her life pleasing other people. As far back as I can remember I have always had to stand between somebody and something disagreeable, or between two somebodies or maybe it has been three or four somebodies I've had to distribute myself among. For somebody's sake I have lived in towns I hated. I have let myself be squeezed into tight places for other people. And then again I've been called upon to put out my small body, figuratively speaking, to fill situations quite too big. I have not complained nor appeared unhappy. People always say it is my nature to be unselfish, but it just isn't! So there! Way down in my heart or far in the back of my brain I've rebelled!"

In the same number of the magazine Mary Antin, a talented young Jewess, makes an interesting comparison of our immigrants with our pilgrim fathers showing that immigrants today are the real pioneers of present times. In the following passage she shows the eagerness with which foreigners take advantages for education when they reach this country:

"Go from the public school to the public library, from the library to the social settlement and you will carry away the same story in a hundred different forms. In the experience of librarians it is the very commonplace that the classics have the greatest circulation in the immigrant quarters of the city; and the most touching proof of reverence for learning often comes from the illiterate among the aliens. On the East Side of New York, Teacher is a being adored. Said a bedraggled Jewish mother to her little boy who had affronted his teacher:
"'Don't you know that teachers is holy?'"
"Perhaps these are the things the teachers have in mind when they speak with a tremor of the immense reward of work in the public schools."

Nucleus Lodge, No. 377, of Monongahela, and at the annual election of that lodge Thursday night of this week, Mr. Jenkins, together with two other veterans of the order, was presented with a handsome medal. Two of the medals were for a 50 year record and the other was for a record of 30 years.

The other 50 year veteran of the order besides Mr. Jenkins is George L.
Bayha of Monongahela. D. R. Hamilton also of Monongahela is the member who has attained the extraordinary record of 60 years of continuous membership in the order. He is 88 years old and became an Odd Fellow December 8, 1853. James L. Pates, presented the medals to the three veterans with an appropriate address.
After the presentation a flashlight photograph of the members was taken

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers postpaid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me.
Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address:

Are You a Good Citizen?

Are you content to see your county in control of the Liquor Traffic? To see your officers--paid out of your taxes, for the purpose of restraining the wrong doer and protecting the law abiding--protecting vice, promoting disorder and terrorizing the innocent and defenseless citizens?

Are you willing to see Justices conniving with debauchery and law breaking? Is it not time to arise and assert your manhood--to strike down this evil?

The liquor traffic degrades women and children. It robs the working man of his wages. It embarrasses useful industries. It debauches foreigners. It corrupts the ballot. It dominates politics, barter with judges, tries to intimidate and bribes honest officials and opponents of the traffic. It adds enormously to taxation.

STRIKE--Strike for your homes and families.

STRIKE the business wherever and in whatever form it appears--in your home, in your lodge, in your political party township and borough!

GIVE IT NO QUARTER!

The Liquor Traffic Must Go!

Mostly Blucher styles and a few buttons, in dull calf, vici kid, and patent leathers.

These shoes are all on up-to-date last and could not be bought at wholesale for the price I offer them.

We're losing, you're gaining.
The public knows that we do not indulge in sales for the good reason that a sale is either a losing proposition to the retailer (as this is to us) or it is a scheme to get the most out of the public, in raising first the prices, then reducing them to a level where finally you get a two cent stamp for reduction.

Our prices on Buster Brown shoes are known by practically every mother in town, our honesty and straightforwardness with our patrons and the general public is proverbial. YOU CAN DEPEND ON US ON OUR STATEMENTS AND OUR MERCHANDISE.

We guarantee this sale an advertisement under the law of Pennsylvania enacted the 20th day of March 1913 to punish fraudulent advertisement

DR. J. A. LEATHERMAN ENTERS ARENA

Prominent California Physician Now a Full-Fledged Candidate for Legislature Nomination

Dr. J. A. Leatherman, a resident of California for 40 years and one of the best known physicians in Washington county has yielded to the entreaties of his friends and will be a candidate for nomination as legislator on the Republican ticket says the California Sentinel

Dr. J. A. Leatherman was born and raised on a farm in West Bethlehem township. He graduated from Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York City in 1874 and has since practiced medicine in California. Last April he retired from active practice, but since that time his health has shown marked improvement and he is now turning his eyes towards a field of new activities. Dr. Leatherman, to use his own expression, was "born a Republican" and has always been one. He has served his home community for many years acceptably as counsellor.

There are few men in the county who enjoy a wider acquaintance than Dr. Leatherman, and he will undoubtedly draw votes from all parties if he is nominated.

THIRD PICTURE OF SERIES AT THE LYRIC TONIGHT

"The Temple of the Lion" the third story in the series of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be presented at the Lyric theatre this evening. The picture portrays many thrilling scenes of the orient and the adventures of a young American girl who has an unwilling thrice thrust upon her. "The Story the Gate Told" a Lubin drama featuring Miss Erma Hawley will also be shown. "Time and Cupid," a rip-roaring comedy and "Down Lone Capway" a thrilling western picture with scenes laid in the western mountains will be an additional feature.

FIRST SNAKE STORY OF THE SEASON FOLD

The first snake story of the season has been heard, though it is not a serious one. D. C. Whitlatch, local baggage agent at the Pennsylvania railroad station noticed a black snake creeping lazily across Long alley on Friday. He killed the snake. How it had ever managed to get into town is a question. It apparently was just out of its winter rest, so sluggishly did it travel.

MONESSEN SUNDAY SCHOOL DISTRICT TO HOLD RALLY

The Monessen Sunday school district of the Westmoreland county association, will hold a rally on Sunday afternoon. There will be two afternoon speakers and one evening speaker. The afternoon speakers will be Rev. J. R. Burson, of Charleroi, and Prof. J. V. Thompson, of Pittsburg, and the evening speaker will be John Silsley, Esq., of Greensburg.

AS ENGLAND SEES US

TYPICAL AMERICAN NOT REFERRED TO FLATTERINGLY.

Truth is, the American is of a Type That the Old World Has Not Yet Come to Understand, and So Its Judgment is at Fault.

The Americans as a race walk better, than we—more freely, with a taking swing, and almost with grace. How much of this is due to living in a democracy, and how much to wearing no shoes, it is very difficult to determine. But certainly it is the lack of shoes, and therefore of more loosely moving bodies.

Also, Americans take their coats off, which is sensible, and they can do so more beautifully because they are not so much braced. They take their coats off everywhere and any where, and somehow it strikes the visitor as the most symbolic thing about them. They have not yet thought of wearing collars; but they are usually shirt-sleeved.

A sculptor seeking to figure this people in stone must carve in a figure a young man, open-faced, pleasant, and rather vulgar, straw hat on the back of his head, his trousers full and sloppy, his coat over his arm. The motto written beneath will be, of course: "This is some country."

The philosophic gazer on such a monument might get some way toward understanding the making of the Panama canal, that exploit that no European nation could have carried out.

The American race seems to have developed two classes, and only two, the upper middle and the lower middle.

Their faces are very distinct. The upper-class head is long, often fine about the forehead and eyes, and very clean, oftened. The eyes have an odd, tired pathos in them—mixed with the irrepressible that is so admirable—as if of a perpetual, never quite successful, effort to understand something.

It is like the face of an only child who has been brought up in the company of adults. But the mouth of such a child is the most typical feature.

It is small, tight, and closed downward at the corners, the lower lip very slightly protruding. It has very little expression in it, and no curves. There the Puritan comes out.

But no other nation has a mouth like this. It is shared to some extent by the lower classes, but their mouths tend to the wider and more expressive.

These anyhow, are the types that strike out in the eastern cities. And there are intermediate varieties, as on the general business man, with the narrow forehead and the wide, smooth lower face.

The women's faces are more indeterminate, not very feminine. Many of them wear those "invisible" eyeglasses which center all glances about the bridge of the nose and give them that awful air of intellectuality.

Handsome people of both sexes are very contemptible beautiful and pretentious very rare—Westminster Gazette.

PROHIBITION CLUB DEBATES PAYING OF INDEMNITY

Whether or not it would be the proper thing to pay the liquor interests of the United States indemnity in case the national prohibition bill becomes a law was the subject matter debated at the Belle Vernon Prohibition club Friday evening. The debaters decided not. Thomas He and F. E. Morgan upheld the affirmative and Rev. R. N. Large and Samuel T. Sale the negative side.

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did"—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Was A Blessing To This Woman.

So, RICHMOND, VA.—"I was troubled with a bearing down pain and a female weakness and could not stand long on my feet. Of all the medicines I took nothing helped me like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now regular and am getting along fine. I cannot praise the Compound too much. It has been a blessing to me and I hope it will be to other women."—Mrs. D. TYLER, 23 West Clayton St., South Richmond, Va.

Pains in Side, Could Hardly Stand.

LODI, Wis.—"I was in a bad condition, suffering from a female trouble, and I had such pains in my sides I could hardly move. Before I had taken the whole of one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt better, and now I am well and can do a good day's work. I tell everybody what your medicine has done for me."—Mrs. JOHN THOMPSON, Lodi, Wisconsin.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
